PRESIDENTS COLUMN

Happy March everyone. The month of Leprechauns.

Right off I want to thank everyone that helped me get through my first board meeting and general meeting as President, also thank everyone that stepped up to the plate to fill our swap meet duty roster. As of this writing there is only 1 spot left to fill, and that is Saturday, antitheft patrol 4:30 PM to 9 PM. please help if you can. Also there is a need for help to work in the information booth. We are going down to 1 information booth because the two ladies that ran the two booths before have decided to drop out of Swap meet. Laura Burk from the Chev club is the lady replacing them and needs people to work in the booth. As in the past this will qualify you for your free banquet in May. If you can help please contact me and I will pass your information onto Laura to contact you to schedule your shift. Thank you in advance.

I would also like to encourage you to attend our first Wednesday breakfast. I have attended most of them and I have totally enjoyed being able to interact with members that I haven't been able to from just meetings. Hope to see you there. With March here it's time to get those A's out, brush off the cobwebs and get them ready for a great touring season. Hopefully spring weather is right around the corner.

The 50/50 drawing got off to a slow start this last month. Next month David Adair has offered to start selling tickets before 7:00 PM. so let's get that pot up there. Let's make it something to get excited about!

Thank you everyone!
Debbie Dutton

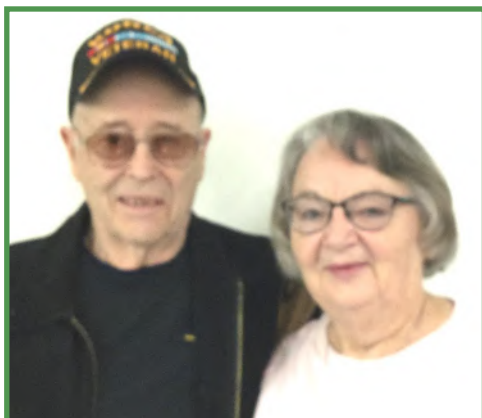

Hospital Report - An elderly gentleman was reading his recovery-room record at the hospital where I work. He looked quite concerned at one notation. "I know I was in a bit of a muddle, but I didn't realize I was that bad," he said apologetically. "I hope I didn't offend anyone." He was greatly relieved when I explained the acronym in question meant "Short OF Breath" and not what he thought.

Things to Think About on the Model A

~ from the SCRIPT A NEWS

1. The Model A engine will run cooler at higher speeds and it will heat up more at lower speeds. This is due to air flow thru the radiator.
2. Did you know you are supposed to oil the starting crank bearing? Access is through the crank hole cover. The purpose is to lubricate the front spring and reduce the possibility of squeaks between the cross member and spring.
3. Spark plugs that have a dirty, oily, greasy build-up on the porcelain can allow current leakage. This will cut down the spark to the plugs. So, keep the spark plugs clean.
4. The coil body and distributor body and cap can develop carbon blow outs. They will look like pencil lines. This is a short and the pencil looking line is where the current travels. It is due to a loose wire or dirt build-up on the item. So, check these parts and keep them clean.

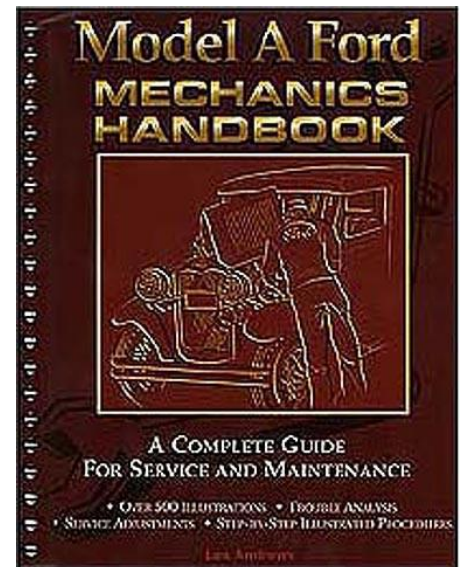

MARCH TINY TIPS ~ David Adair

On page 147 of Les Andrew's Model A Ford Mechanics Handbook he gives a wonderful tip. To align the flywheel with the two dowel pins on the crank shaft, use two manifold studs in the flywheel bolt holes. With the manifold studs as guides the flywheel is easy to guide into place the first time. This also saves wear and tear on fingers.

I have trouble grasping the crank when trying to place it on the main bearings. Knowing this, I used two long head studs inserted into the crankshaft end when I sat the flywheel in place. The long head studs gave me better control. I was only replacing the two nitril seals on the crank shaft. It was important to align the timing marks. I was able to do this on the first try.

Another bonus of Les's book is it shows helpful charts when working on an engine. On page 131 there is a list of all the tap sizes. No guess work is required. Chasing the threaded holes in a block is always a good idea.

On pages 132-134 there is a chart listing all the bolts, size, quantity and the wrench size. Page 134 has a chart listing foot pounds of torque for engine parts. Not listed on the chart, but elsewhere in the book it's stated that a 5/8" 12 point socket will work on a main bearing square bolt.

A vintage photo of a dad and his son going fishing. Besides the Model A with an unusual window shade on the door windows, this is a good examples of what clothes were worn by boys and men. Now look again at items that could be accessories for the guys outfits - like the backpacks, fishing creels and the fishing pole tube against the running board. Do you suppose there are worms in the can?

Sherry Winkinhofer, who is the fashion editor for The Restorer, shared this page of men's ties - regular or cheater styles. They are from a 1929 Montgomery Wards Summer catalog. This catalog page was posted on the MAFCA era Facebook page. Sherry is also on the MAFCA Era Fashion Committee, and editor of the kids A World. Sweet Revenge

A woman was charged with a traffic violation, and when asked for her occupation, she said she was a schoolteacher. The Judge rose from the bench, "Madam, I have waited years for a schoolteacher to appear before this court". He smiled with delight. "Now sit down at that table and write 'I will not pass through a red light' five hundred times."

BEAVER CHAPTER FEBRUARY TOUR

Our Machine Shop Tour on Saturday, February 19, 2022 had 7 Model A's, 3 Modern and 15 Members. Mike Gombos brought his freshly restored deep blue 1929 Coupe. He has done a beautiful job with the help of Tom Godish and Lynn Sondenaa. We christened the "Virgin" and gave the "Old Bird" a "Hail Mary."

Tour involved a visit to the Machine Shop at Clackamas Auto Parts in Oregon City. It started in 1934 and the shop displayed some "Depression Era" invoices including a motor rebuild for $37.50".

On to Affordable Classics Cars in Gladstone. This was a Model A "Flash Mob" arrival. The dealership's owner Juan Ruiz quickly gathered donuts from the shop across the street and even offered up a "Door Prize". (1930-1931 A Wire Wheel surrounded by an Allstate Truck Tire) Kirk Metteer ended up with the "Prize". Thank you Juan for the hospitality.

On to the "Food Carts" at 14th and Washington in Oregon City. Sat inside where it was warm, welcoming and great food.

Drive Em,
Tom Winterrowd

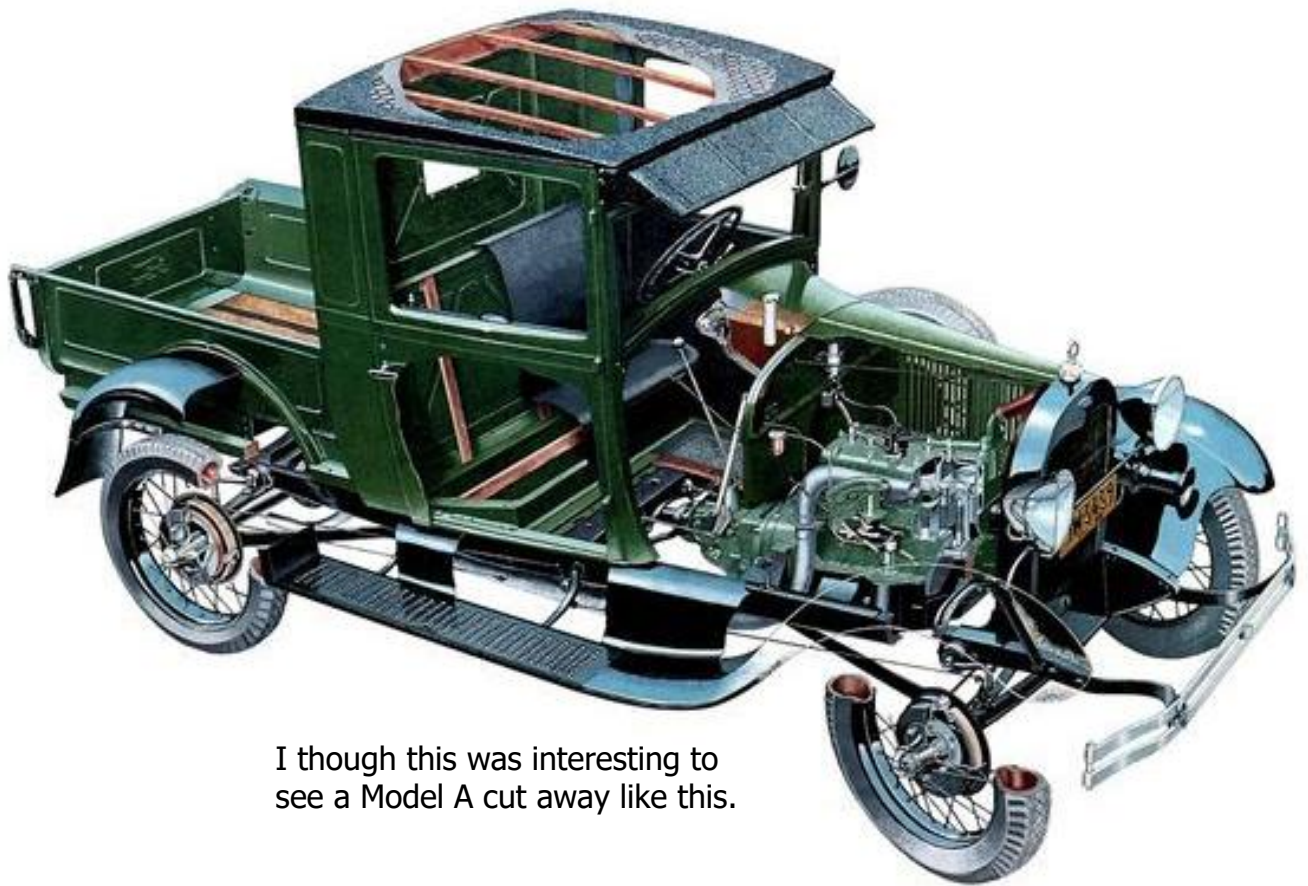

Juan played 78 oldies on his vintage trash can jukebox.

Clackamas Auto Parts in Oregon City can surface, mill, clean, magna flux and bore cylinders on Model A's. They will also swedge your hubs onto cast iron drums and will turn drums on a brake lathe to get them true. The only thing they cant do is line bore.

He who does not check his oil is the first to throw a rod.

I thought this was interesting to see a Model A cut away like this.

Beaver Chapter is celebrating 60 years! Time sure flies when you're having fun!! We will be celebrating at the banquet scheduled on May 22nd. See page 12. Sign up will begin with the April newsletter. So mark your calendar, sign up for the banquet and come help us celebrate a memorable time. And don't forget, your banquet is free if you work the Portland Swap Meet, but you must sign up. See you there...

Beaver Chapter ladies gather in the annex when the guys have a Model A Seminar. At the February club meeting Chris Irwin brought this quilt to show. The appliqued blocks were pieced in 1928, remaining tucked away for years, when Chris and her sister pieced them into this quilt. Each block featured different flowers. Thanks Chris for sharing it with us! We also got to know newer member Shirley Bliss, and we talked about "panniers" and ribbon embroidery on vintage fashions. Ladies, join us the next meeting when the guys have their seminar.

Don't forget to do your assigned Portland Swap Meet duty!

The club will be fined $500 if anyone misses their duty.

Elinor Smith

In 1930, Elinor was voted "best female pilot" by her peers, a group that included Amelia Earhart. Smith's aviation records for endurance, altitude and speed in the 1920s and '30s led to worldwide fame. This 1931 Springfield paper states Elinor pilots her machine to record height. Here is an interesting quote: "I remember so vividly my first time aloft that I can still hear the wind sing in the wires as we glided down," she wrote in her autobiography. "Aviatrix" Harcourt Brace Jovanovich, 1981). "By the time the pilot touched the wheels gently to earth, I knew my future in airplanes and flying was as inevitable as the freckles on my nose."

Of course everyone knows the story of Amelia Earhart, pictured below in her plane and on the running board of a Model A.

Era magazines also featured women of flight in stories and on their covers like this 1929 Life cover.

Isn't it cool that we have access to this history!
